

Reading in college is hard.

Hundreds of pages coming at you from textbooks and academic articles to literary classics and lab reports. If only someone who knows the academic world could explain how to not just manage but learn to love your college reading.

Dr. Matt's Gutsy Guide to Reading in College takes you step by step through how to succeed with your college reading.

This all-in-one guide shows you what happens to your brain on books and what's going on in your professor's head when they're picking readings. This guide is packed with strategies for creating your perfect reading spot, setting up your tech, managing your routine, learning what to watch for in your reading, discovering your favorite note-taking style, and much more!

Written for recent high school grads, adults returning to college, and first-generation university students, this guide covers it all.

Praise for Reading in College

"Whether you're brand new to the college reading experience or a seasoned veteran, I promise this book is worth the read!" Becca (University student)

"I've been teaching college students to read intensively for decades. Enter Dr. Matt's Gutsy Guide to Reading in College and the 21st century! This is the best book currently available for those seeking advice, skills, and strategies for college reading." Dr. D (University professor)

Published: February 2024

Trim: 6 x 9 in.

186 pages

LCCN: 2023918342

Paperback: $12.99 (ISBN 979-8-9890562-0-0)

Ebook: $9.99 (ISBN 979-8-9890562-1-7)

Audio: $12.99 (ISBN 979-8-9890562-2-4)

Available at: Amazon, Ingram, and VitalSource.

Contact the author for institutional and bulk discounts.

Dr. Matt Friesen, has been a student for most of his life and has taught thousands of students in large and small universities. His government and not-for-profit experience helps students think about today's grades and tomorrow's career. His scholarship, humor, and support for first generation students creates a practical, challenging (and occasionally snarky) guide for succeeding in college reading. Find his books and other resources at www.gutsycollege.com.

541-990-5437

www.gutsycollege.com

linkedin.com/in/mcfriesen

matt@gutsycollege.com

facebook.com/gutsycollege

youtube.com/@gutsycollege